

Less regulation promotes more "...localism, diversity and competition." As history has shown, less regulation has led to much greater competition. Once when we could only get 13 standard cable TV channels we can now get nearly 7 times that in standard cable TV channels.

I urge the FCC to not only relax the broadcast ownership rules, but to eliminate them.

Thank you.